Area Voters to Decide Two School Bond Issues in Balloting Tuesday

CLEANING UP CANS AND RUBBISH along the road at the entrance to Palm Springs yesterday, two county workers pile the truck high in just one mile of roadway, north from the city limits The crew, which cleaned the same area some five months ago, reported that it was one of the biggest loads of cans picked up in a single mile area in the county. MACMILLAN GOAL IS FAST SUMMIT

LONDON (UPI) — Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, brimming with new energy after his election triumph, told his Cabinet today that his next goal is an East - West summit meeting without delay.

Government sources said he was shooting for one in late November or early December — the first, in fact, of the "continuous chain of summits" he wants.

MACMILLAN RETURNED to London after a weekend rest at his Sussex country home from the strain of electioneering and the battle at the polls which his Conservative Party won handily.

He met with his Cabinet at No. 10 Downing Street for the first time since the results came in.

Informed sources said Macmillan outlined his plans for:

—A summit meeting in the next few weeks.

—A minor revamping of his government.

WITH LAST Thursday's election out of the way, government sources said Macmillan planned to concentrate much of his effort on an all-out drive for the summit.

They said he may fly to Washington soon to confer with President Eisenhower on the results of the President's meetings with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

BRITISH PRESS reports from Washington said French President Charles de Gaulle also might be invited to Washington for a pre-summit confab — perhaps while Macmillan is there.

Union to Comply With Law, But Issues Threat

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The striking United Steelworkers' union said today its members would return to work under a Taft-Hartley injunction. But it hinted that the walkout would resume after any such court order expires.

David J. McDonald, union president, made the veiled threat of a renewed stoppage in a statement submitted at the opening of hearings by a presidential fact-finding board.

THE PANEL IS attempting to settle the 90-day-old strike by voluntary agreement while paving the way at the same time for a strike-stopping injunction if its peace effort fails.

President Eisenhower opened the way for the government to obtain an 80-day no-strike injunction by creating the board of inquiry last Friday.

Cathedral City Man Injured In Truck Mishap

INDIO — A Cathedral City man was treated at Desert Hospital in Palm Springs for injuries sustained when the cement truck he was driving smashed into a utility pole and rolled over at Smead Road and Highway 111 this weekend.

The California Highway Patrol office here said Herbert Carl Bowman, 49, of 68-570 H Street, lost control of the vehicle as he attempted to turn from the highway onto Smead.

He was cited for driving without due caution, the CHP reported.

Court Acts On Several Key Issues

Cases Involve Desegregation, Racial Disputes

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Supreme Court, in its first working session of the new term, acted today on a series of key cases involving public school desegregation, labor union activities, racial disputes, Communism and wiretapping.

It then began hearing arguments on the complex federal-state dispute over Gulf tidelands oil rights.

THE HIGH TRIBUNAL, acting on a number of appeals filed during its summer recess:

—Agreed to hear arguments on and rule whether a worker can be forced to pay union dues to keep his job when some of the money is used for political activities.

—Refused to grant a hearing to a Raleigh, N. C., Negro youth who sought unsuccessfully to win transfer to a white high school.

—DECLINED TO take another look at a lower court decision ordering Prince Edwards County, Virginia, to integrate its schools. The public schools there are now closed. White children are attending privately financed system. No provision has been made for 1,800 Negro pupils.

—Also turned down an appeal by the Norfolk, Va., City Council from court-ordered school desegregation.

—AGREED TO HEAR arguments in a second case involving the constitutionality of the "membership clause" conviction of an alleged Communist. The new appeal was brought by John Francis Noto of Buffalo, N. Y.

—Refused to reconsider its rejection last June of segregationist John Kasper's appeal from a 1957 contempt of court conviction stemming from Kasper's activities in conection with school integration at Clinton, Tenn. He and six others were convicted of violating a U. S. District Court order barring inteference with the court-ordered integration. Kasper is now serving a six-month sentence for the offense.

—REFUSED TO reconsider a ruling which upheld the authority of the House Committe on Un-American Activities to investigate Communism. This affirmed the contempt conviction of Lloyd Barenbatt, a former Vassar College instructor who refused to answer committee questions about past or present Communist associations.

—Similarly refused to reconsider its previous action which set aside a $100,000 fine levied against the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People by the state of Alabama.

RED SCIENTIST CLAIMS MOON IS EGG-SHAPED

MOSCOW (UPI) — Soviet scientist Vsevold Fedynsky suggested Sunday in the newspaper Pravda that the moon may be egg-shaped.

He made the observation as Lunik III, after having circled the moon, began picking up speed on its return toward the earth. It is expected to pass 24,840 miles from the earth Oct. 18.

Fedynsky suggested that the moon, "with one side always turned towards the earth, may be a triaxial ellipsoid, it may be elongated along its equatorial plane in the direction of the earth."

"Precise study of the rocket's trajectory will help to make the shape of the moon clear," he said.

A spokesman at Britain's Royal Observatory in Hurstmonceux, England, was most reserved about Fedynsky's suggestion and said he did not believe information radioed from Lunik III could solve the problem.

Thieves Get $375 Cash from School Offices

Thieves cracked a big steel lock box and rifled offices at the Palm Springs High School administration building this week end, escaping with $375 in cash and assorted valuables.

Detective Sgt. John Herrera said the midnight bandits broke through a window to loot offices of school Principal Charles Webster and the student store sometime Friday night.

THE THEFT WAS discovered by Dr. Webster yesterday.

Herrera said the burglars used a sledge hammer to smash open the safe-like box. They got $340 in cash, two transistor radios and two wrist watches from the box.

The bandits also took $35 in cash and three checks from the student store and a cigaret lighter from Dr. Webster's office. Herrera said all the desk drawers in the various offices were rifled.

HERRERA THEORIZED that the burglars raided the building Friday night in hopes of finding receipts from that evening's high school football game. But the cash, about $800, had been taken to the bank for night deposit.

The approximate time of the theft was set by the statement of a student who said she saw the door to the student store standing open Saturday morning, Herrera said.

Herrera added that the burglars got the tools for their night's work from a nearby construction company storage shed, from which they took a sledge, an electric drill and similar equipment.

POLICE BUILDING DEDICATED TODAY

Erle Stanley Gardner, famed author of the Perry Mason stories, today officially dedicated the Palm Springs Police Building, in ceremonies at 2 p.m. in the front of the new facility.

City, county, and state dignitaries were present to help in the celebration which lasted one hour.

IN HIS DEDICATORY speech, Gardner asked that the people of Palm Springs support the police department, which in turn would make it an even finer department.

With a rostrum set up in front of the building, the American Legion Post, under the command of past commander Al Patane, raised the flags on the two flagpoles. The assemblage saluted the flag while saying the Pledge of Allegiance.

SPEAKERS AT the dedication were Mayor Frank Bogert; John Peper, director of Peace Officers Training for the State of California; City Manager Dan Wagner, and Chief of Police August G. Kettman, who introduced honored guests, architect John Porter Clark, and builder Arthur Press.

Following the ceremony, the building was opened to escorted tours, and a buffet was held in the police classroom, catered by Santos.

The invocation was given by Dr. James Blackstone, Jr., pastor of the Palm Springs Community Church, and the benediction was given by Rev. Fa. William Goodrow, pastor of Our Lady of Solitude.

Israel Observes Atonement Day

JERUSALEM, Israel (UPI) — The normal hustle and bustle of daily life was at a standstill today in Israel on this Day of Atonement, most holy day of the Jewish calendar.

The entire nation plunged into 24-hours of fasting and soul-searching at sundown Sunday with the chanting of the Kol Nidre. At sundown this afternoon normal activities resume.

Polaris Falls Short of Set 900-Mile Flight

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A long-range Polaris test missile fired today from Cape Canaveral fell short of its planned 900-mile flight the Navy announced here.

The Navy said that the flight of the advanced design missile "was terminated early for reasons not yet known."

The announcement said that the firing and separation of the first stage and the ignition of the second stage of the missile were normal.

Three Seniors Compete for Scholarships

Three Palm Springs High School seniors were today named as semi-finalists in the 1959-60 National Merit Scholarship competition by Dr. Charles Webster, school principal.

They are Grant Grueneich, Frank Ripley and Erik Williams.

DR. WEBSTER said the local students are among 10,000 of the highest scorers in qualifying tests for the scholarships. The tests of educational development were given in 14,500 high schools last spring.

But in order to win a coveted scholarship to the universities of their choice, the semi-finalists must pass a rigorous three-hour scholarship aptitude test of the college entrance board on Dec. 5.

IF THEY REPEAT their high scores on this exam, the Village seniors become finalists, eligible for scholarship awards sponsored by some 100 business and industrial organizations, professional societies, foundations, individuals and the National Merit Scholarship Corporation, which conducts the annual competition.

In passing their semi-final tests, the resorr trio bested 555,000 high school students throughout the nation, Dr. Webster said.

Local Schools Expansion To Be Decided

Junior College Buildings Up For Authorization

Voters in two school districts parade to the polls tomorrow for balloting on a pair of bond issues designed to create a new junior college and expand facilities of the Palm Springs School District.

The issues are entirely separate and voters will cast ballots on each one.

In the sprawling Coachella Valley Junior College District, voters are being asked to approve a $3,500,000 bond issue that will provide the first six buildings on the campus of the College of the Desert.

PALM SPRINGS Unified School District voters, faced with student enrollments that threaten exhaustion of available classroom space, have been called to act upon a $4,160,000 bond issue.

For the junior college, which was created by a nine-to-one vote last year, passage of the bond issue means the institution will be ready for operation in late 1961 with a big enough plant for 1,000 students.

BOND ISSUE plans call for construction of a science building, a library, a general classroom building for liberal arts studies, a combination building for administrative offices and classrooms, a physical education unit with gymnasium and locker facilities and a campus center, with cafeteria, snack bar, assembly room and student offices.

A smaller building for workshops and maintenance facilities is also planned for the Palm Desert college site.

THE PALM SPRINGS school bond issue, charted for 5,000 students, completes a five-year expansion program and provides for a Thousand Palms Elementary School, costing $160,414; Desert Hot Springs School expansion, $374,106; a new Rancho Mirage elementary school, $379,822; Nellie N. Coffman Junior High School additions, $371,160; Palm Springs High School additions, $567,656, and an educational center, $239,000.

The bond issue also provides for a site acquisition program which, over a two-year period, is expected to create room for anticipated expansion several years into the future. This involves an estimated $355,000 worth of land for five school sites and an educational center site.

IN ADDITION, $236,695 is marked for new outdoor physical education facilities, $225,000 is tabbed for a second junior high school site, $494,775 is for another Palm Springs elementary school not envisioned in the original 1957 expansion program.

Johnson Says Not Candidate

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson says he is not running for his party's presidential nomination but he has left the door open for the 1960 convention to draft him.

Johnson, one of the Senate's four Democratic presidential possibilities, said Sunday, "I am not a candidate for President. I do not intend to become a candidate for President."

Paced by Ike's Jet

Bonanza Sets Turbo-Prop Start

With President Eisenhower's turbo-jet airliner leading the way, Bonanza Airlines will soon offer the resort community its first prop-jet service.

Due to be inaugurated on Oct. 25, Bonanza will start two daily flights out of the local airport with its new Silver-Dart prop-jet, with the first flight arriving at 4:35 p.m. from Phoenix, Ariz.

ROBERT BUSSEAU, district sales manager for Bonanza Airlines, reported that the new service would be in conjunction with DC-3 service from Palm Springs, for a total of four flights a day out of this city.

The Silver Dot flight will make the run from Phoenix to Blythe to Palm Springs, Riverside and Los Angeles. According to Busseau, the flight will take 57 minutes to Los Angeles and one hour and 20 minutes to Phoenix.

This will cut several minutes of the present flight time to Los Angeles, and almost 54 minutes off the flight to Phoenix.

AND WESTERN Airlines will not be far behind, for following shortly will be Western's new Electra Jet, scheduled for short hops between Palm Springs, Los Angeles, Phoenix, and as far east as Minneapolis-St. Paul.

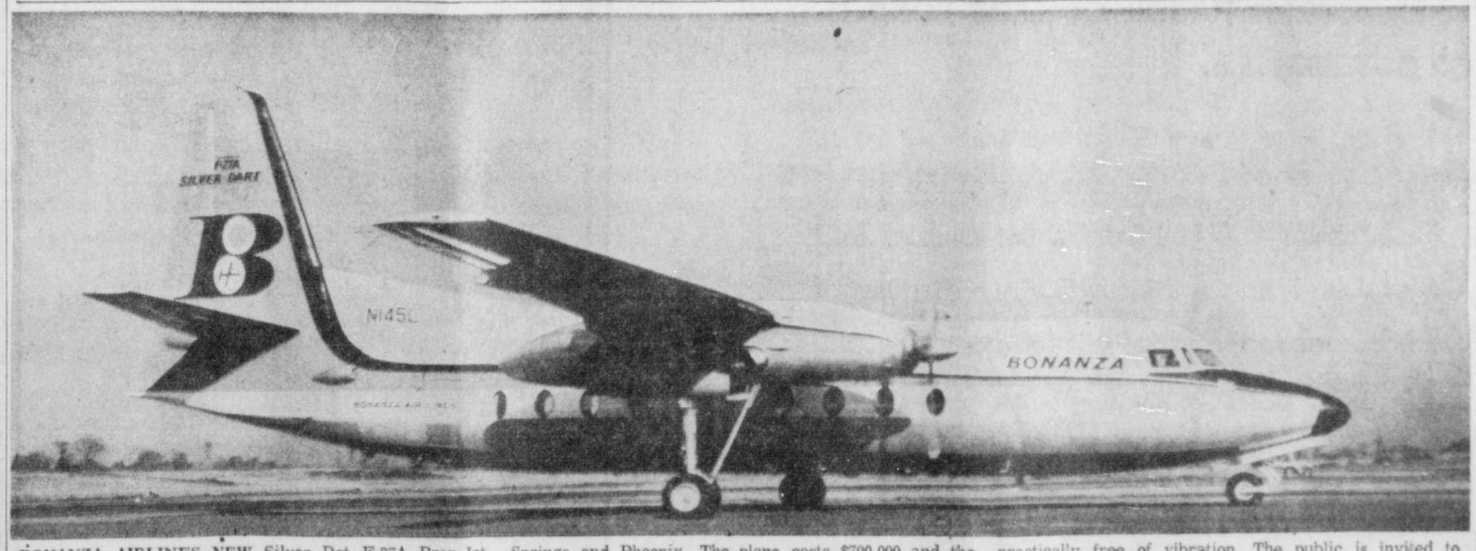
In comparing the turbo-jet to the prop-jet aircraft, Gene Boyer of Western Airlines said: "It takes a lot of fuel and a long runway to get a turbo-jet into the air, and the prop-jet is a combination of both jet power and propellers, which in turn allows for operation on short hops and within the confines of any runway which can take the DC-6b class aircraft."

WESTERN TODAY is flying the DC-6b airplane, and Bonanza is using a DC-3, in the Palm Springs runs.

Even a greater expansion of airline service to and from Palm Springs is expected in the future, with leading inter-continental airline services, such as American, Continental, TWA and others making requests for local service.

"THE PART THAT these airlines, including Bonanza and Western, will play in helping Palm Springs hold its title as America's leading winter resort and "Winter Golf Capital of the World," can hardly be predicted," said Mayor Frank Bogert, "but it will be tremendous."

Tuesday the city will have a consensus of the members of the Agua Caliente Tribe as to whether they will sell the municipal airport to the city.



BONANZA AIRLINES NEW Silver Dot F-27A Prop-Jet will make its inaugural flight into Palm Springs on October 25. The plane will make travel much faster between Palm Springs and Los Angeles and Palm Springs and Phoenix. The plane costs $700,000 and the engines alone are a $72,000 expenditure. It climbs at a rate of 1,500 to 2,000 feet per minute and the cabin is pressurized, air conditioned, indirectly lighted and practically free of vibration. The public is invited to see the plane when it lands here on its trip at 4:35 p.m. Oct. 20.

DIABOLICAL DESMOND, THE fireman's delight, demonstrates three principal reasons why fire insurance rates go up every year—the lighted match in a cluttered closet, the electrical "octopus" and the outdoor barbecue cluck who looks for an easy answer to his charcoal lighting problems. "Desmond," in the case, is John Sanborn, Fire Prevention Week chairman for the Palm Springs Elks Club, who caricatures some of the "Dont's" emphasized by safety officials during the current Fire Prevention Week. The photo on the left requires little explanation and the moral is obvious. Desmond is clearly determined to send everything up in smoke, including the cook. But that's because he doesn't know that gasoline is for autos, not fires. In the center photo, Desmond demonstrates the operation of the kitchen octopus with a mass of electrical appliances plugged into one slightly overloaded outlet. The Palm Springs Fire Department reports that 22 fires were caused by electrical faults thus far this year. Many of these were probably the result of such overloading. In the photo on the right, Desmond shows one of the easiest ways to start a fire in a cluttered closet. He hasn't had time to clean the closet and the flashlight's too far away, anyhow—so there'll be a hot time in the old closet tonight. Sanborn advises Villagers to learn and practice the moral of his photoplay—"don't be a Desmond, unless you've got the money, property and lives to burn." (Desert Sun Photo).

A Serious Question

Wednesday evening of this week the City Council will consider the adoption of a new ordinance which would make mandatory certain changes in the development of future subdivisions in Palm Springs.

Principal among the additional requirements proposed as compared to existing regulations would be the compulsory installation of underground utilities such as electricity, telephone and television, the paving of sidewalks and some landscaping.

At first glance these would all seem to be desirable and commendable changes.

When one studies the increased costs involved to the builder and the buyer, however, the question arises as to what effect these might have in retarding residential development, especially in those areas where the most modest price homes are being built.

Based upon an approximate cost of $155,000 under the present ordinance to purchase and prepare 20 acres for residential subdivision, it is estimated that costs could jump about $90,000 or to $245,000 under the proposed new ordinance, not including extra interest, handling charges, etc.

Divided among about 70 homes per 20 acres this could amount to somewhere near $1,500 each. Although this figure does not seem too consequential where the development is one of higher priced homes in the more expensive sectors of the City, it becomes quite sizeable when tacked onto the cost of lower priced homes in other areas.

Everyone favors underground utilities. It is only a question of whether or not the individual home buyer can afford the extra cost.

Up to now the decision as to whether or not utilities should be placed underground has been made on the basis of each individual situation. That it has functioned with good results is attested to by the number of such installations in the higher priced residential developments.

The proposal to blanket the entire 30 some square miles contained within the City Limits with a mandatory requirement in that regard is subject to serious consideration at this time.

Neanderthal Age

Mounting Issue of Labor

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Labor strikes are regarded by objective observers (there are still a few) as indicating one of two sets of conditions: in bad times, a revolt against intolerable situations imposed by Management; in good times, a power play on the part of the Labor leaders.

In the steel industry and on the shipping wharves, the first condition simply does not exist. Prosperity reigns in these two economic areas. The workers are well paid and well protected. The public fully understands that these strikes are a contest for power.

THE WALK-OUTS were called by the union chiefs for the purpose of obtaining more control over men and money. This is not, as is often pictured, an insidious iniquity on the part of Labor leaders. It is the classic reason for nearly all massive struggles, including national politics and international war. If it is sinful, it is also commonplace.

But there is a special point here, often reiterated, but hardly susceptible of over-emphasis. A third party is involved. An innocent bystander is catching undeserved punishment — the American public. What's more, this is a time in history when the American public has asserted its unwillingness to be the fall guy between Management and Labor.

THE 86th CONGRESS, now in recess, passed an astonishingly severe law to curb the effrontaries of Labor leaders. It is a bill that would never have passed in depression times when public sympathy goes blindly to those who live by wages.

It is a law born amid general prosperity, urged by a President with Big Business associations, pushed through Congress by a conservative coalition of Western Republicans like Senator Goldwater (Ariz.) and Rep. Griffin (Mich.) in alliance with Southern Democrats like Senator McClellan (Ark.), and Rep. Landrum (Ga.). This coalition could not have succeeded except by the demand of an aroused public.

WELL, IT WON'T be very long before Congress returns with the same President, the same coalition, backed by the same American public. The latter's irritation may very well be heightened by the series of strikes which is affecting a greater number of bystanders each day.

A reasonable forecast might be that the second session of the 86th Congress will go even further in strengthening the Labor laws. Also, it is becoming predictable that the 1960 election is going to be one where Labor - Management - Government affairs stand high among the issues. Let's consider what this forecast could mean in specifics:

TWO ADDITIONAL methods of curbing Labor leaders were discussed before Congress left town. Senator McCleland made it plain that he might ask for anti-trust laws against monopolistic unions. A number of Republicans have, less openly, discussed a plan for a National Right to Work Law or Constitutional Amendment. This plan would outlaw what is known by Labor as union shops and by Management as compulsory unionism.

In the weeks since Congress and Mr. K. departed, legislative analysts have had time to dissect the numerous bills and amendments which went to make up the Labor-Management Reporting and Disclosure Act of 1959.

PEOPLE WHO read these detailed dissections and reports will see who stood for what. It is incontestable that Senator Kennedy fought all the way for little legislative gimmicks which favored Labor leaders. Most of these were finally thrown out by the coalition.

On the other side, Senators McClellan and Goldwater, with Minority Leader Halleck and possibly Vice President Nixon in the background, seem to have done the most to give the new Labor law its present form.

Next year's session and next year's election will decide who was right and who was wrong in American public opinion.

This Side Of The Sun

By Phat

'Twas back in
Fourteen Ninety Two
That Columbus
Sailed the ocean blue—

That's it. I've forgotten the rest of that poem I had to learn in history class in high school many, many years ago.

So many that I've forgotten that, too.

ANYWAY, today, October 12, 1959, is Discovery Day.

With the aid of a pencil and the back of an envelope, I have figured out that that was 467 years ago.

There are several people in town who bet on the White Sox who wish Christopher had turned back when his crew asked him to.

But he didn't, so here we are today.

JUST THINK, if Columbus hadn't had the idea that the world is round, there wouldn't be drivers weaving in and out of traffic lanes, running boulevard stops and red lights, juvenile delinquency, squabbles over the freeway, and—oh, well, just and.

On the other hand, Columbus thought, 467 years ago, that the world was round. He was right—then.

Today it's pretty flat.

THERE'S A LITTLE tragedy involved in that trip of Columbus back in 1492. He was trying to find a new route to the East Indies by going west.

He landed on the east coast of the Bahamas in the vicinity of the present Watliag Island.

He did not touch the continent but he never knew that.

And it didn't make any difference.

HIS NAME has been given to many, many spots in the Western Hemisphere because, while he didn't get here, he gets the credit for discovering the Americas.

Every ship that comes to America now is using charts based on the original one drawn by Columbus.

So much for Discovery Day and if any history teacher wants to make use of this information, its use is not prohibited by copyright law.

PETE LAVERTY, don't listen Joe Rice, of The Sun office, three days invested a nominal fee in a pool. Not one with wall to wall water but on the World Series.

Each time he drew Number One.

The first day it was 11-0 and he collected. Ventured again and lost. Third time he tried it was 1-0 and he was happy.

THEN THURSDAY, he decided to try it once again. And again drew Number One. Fourth time in a row.

The Dodgers scored eight in three innings and in the fourth the Sox scored three.

So it was eleven.

He was hard to get along with until the ninth. He thought he had it again, eight to three.

Then this guy, Essegian, knocks a home run and Peter was harder to get along with.

I'm glad the Series is over and that Ike has gone home.

Now I can get down to the serious business of loafing without outside disturbances.

And All That Zazz

STAN DELAPLANE:

There was plenty of moanin' low in Monterey, Calif., last week. We attended the Jazz Festival with all the other jazz fans but could not see we added any music to the situation.

Jazz — and I mean progressive jazz or modern jazz — I think grows on you. Like eating oysters. Maybe like horseback riding, a sport highly favored by people who dig horses.

Speaking of that —.

WHILE I WAS resting my shattered ears out in the Carmel Valley, I was invited to go horseback riding.

"We will all take our lunches," said the horsey lady, "and be back about 5 o'clock."

"What time will we start, Horse Lady?"

SHE SAID WE would start early in the morning — "about 7 o'clock while it is still cool."

That is a cool remark if I ever heard one. Obviously this Horse Lady does not know about me and horses. Horses I take out at 7 a. m. do not stay out until 5 p. m.

They turn around and come home, that is all. They pay no attention to the way I pull on the steering wheel. They just make a U-turn. Back to the nice, warm hay.

THE HORSE LADY said we intended to rent horses — all horses these days are U-drive horses.

"They have some nice, gentle horses," she said. "I'm sure you'll enjoy it."

"Will the horse enjoy it? That is what always bothers me. If the horse does not enjoy it, I don't think I will, either."

THIS IS A FACT. I no sooner get on one of these beasts than I try to get on his good side. I was raised on stories like "Black Beauty." Stories where horses LOVED people. Especially people who gave them sugar lumps.

Consequently, I approach the animal with bulging pockets of C&H cocktail cubes. If I had a funnel, I would pour a pound down his throat. That is the kind of friend I am.

THAT WAS POOR type of literature they sawed off on me when I was a child "Feed the nice horsey sugar."

Black Beauty then made offstage comments. About how nice it was to have such a nice young master. And to have such a nice home. He was grateful as an orphan out of the storm.

HORSES THESE days — the U-drive-yourself horses—do not fall for sugar or flattery. They just lip the sugar and let it fall to the ground. Then they left their heads and look at me as though I had slipped them a Mickey.

It is my opinion that these rent horses are on dope. Or are secret drinkers. Or some other horrid vice.

ALL I KNOW IS they will not be friendly and eat my sugar. And when I am 100 yards out of sight of the stable, they stop and start eating grass. Then they turn around and come home.

I have had some of the shortest horseback rides in history.

THE ONLY HORSE that made sense to me in recent years was Lady Wonder who passed on gracefully a few years ago just as she was pregaring to go on "$64,000 Challenge."

She was 33 years old at the time and lived in Richmond, Va. She answered questions. Her answers were very good.

SHE PREDICTED Harry Truman in that gloomy Democratic year. When the pollsters were saying they might as well move the piano out of 1600 Pensylvania Avenue. She predicted Eisenhower correctly and threw in a few clues on a missing 4-year-old in Quincy, Mass.

A horse like that I would have ridden. We would ride and cut up touches. Ask each other quiz questions. I phoned several times person-to-horse for an appointment. But it was too late.

Since then I have had little interst in horses. And what with horses and all that jazz, I said thank you, no. I just sat around the swimming pool and played the juke box.

Newcomer Not New

MIKE CONNOLLY:

HOLLYWOOD — The trouble with that 20th-Fox announcement that the studio discovered a new, non-professional named Elana Eden to star in "The Story of Ruth" is threefold: she's not an amateur and the studio didn't discover her.

She was singing under the name of Hannah Eden in a Greenwich Village nightclub two years ago when Budd Schulberg heard her and signed her for a small part in his picture, "Across the Everglades."

SHE HAS DONE several TV shows since then under the name of Elana Cooper. It's true, as announced, that she has an exotic accent that will fit the role of Ruth perfectly, also that she was born in Israel, which should help her Old Testament interpretation of the part.

Elana reminds me of Oscar Levant, who once said, "Every time I make up my mind, I'm always full of indecision" — as witness two of the TV shows she did as Elana Cooper. In one of them she said she had been a machine-gunner with the Israeli Army; in another, she said she had been a volunteer in the Israeli Army. Well, at least she's an actress.

METRO WON'T let go of Liz Taylor so 20th-Fox is trying to pry Audrey Hepburn away from Paramount for "Cleopatra." In return for the valuable services of Miss Hepburn, 20th-Fox will loan a flock of its young players to Paramount.

A young actress hired a Hollywood press agent and asked, "What's the best way to get my name in the paper?" The space-grabber grunted, "Walk across the street reading one!"

COLUMBIA PICTURES changed the title of "The Jimmy Durante Story" to "Inka Dinka Doo," after Jimmy's most popular nightclub song, with Bing Crosby as Eddie ("Inka") Jackson, Frank Sinatra as the late Lou ("Dinka") Clayton and Dean Martin as Jimmy ("The Schmoz") "doo"rante. "Clayton, Jackson and Durante," of course was the name of the old act.

"Inka" Crosby, incidentally, has bowed out of "The Billionaire" and "Dinka" Sinatra will play the "cameo" part of the singer who teaches Greg Peck how to sing. And "Doo" Martin has a line of liquor coming out labelled "Diino's" named after his Sunset Strip saloon.

VAN HEFLIN will start in Warner Brothers' "Dark at the Top of the Stairs" as the father. That's the part originated on Broadway by Pat Hingle, still ailing after his fall down an elavator shaft in New York several months ago. . . And every femme star from Doris Day to Virginia Grey is in the running for the "young mother" role originated by Teresa Wright.

Ann Blyth and Dr. Jim McNulty moved themselves and their three children—Timothy Patrick, Maureen Ann and Kathleen Mary—from their home across the street from Bob Hope's in North Hollywood to a rented house in the Wilshire district of Los Angeles while their own place is being enlarged to make room for more McNultys.

Joe E. Lewis allows it was nice having Eisenhower as a guest of California, instead of Khrushchev, for a change—and don't worry about any atomic threats from the USSR, says Joe: "Why worry when we've got a man like Ike and that great Cabinet of his—Ben Hogan Sammy Snead and Bob Hope!"

CHANNEL CHATTER

Here's that man Hope again: I caught Bob rehearsing his TV teeoff for the new season last Thursday's (Oct. 8) show—and he was reminiscing about the wonderful vacation he had in Lake Louise and Banff. "Those salmon in the Canadian Rockies swim upstream because of a strange, irresistible urge to destroy themselves," said Bob.

It's the same thing that keeps Milton Berle coming back to TV every year! . . . Bob, by the by, has booked Jayne Mansfield to introduce Hollywood's new Deb Stars, crowned at the Hollywood Palladium last Friday (Oct. 9) on his Nov. 9 special.

THERE WERE several red faces (and it wasn't caused by rouge-) on the faces of the committee members who picked Deb Star candidates for the seventh annual Deb Star Ball staged by the Hollywood Make-up men and hair stylists. The committee selected Maggie Pierce as MGM's starlet-of-the-year—i. e., the one most likely to achieve full stardom by next year. Every studio has one entry.

Maggie was MGM's. Independent producers also submit their entries. Jim Byron, the independent press agent who landed a term contract for Yvette Mimieux at MGM, submitted Yvette. The committee selected Yvette too. That's how it happened, for the first time, that a studio had two contenders in the Deb skirmish . . . Coincidentally, Yvette's crafty publicity man is also Jayne Mansfield's.

MICKEY HARGITAY, TheSorceress's Apprentice, returns with Miss Mansfield from London, where she is finishing her starring spot in "Too Hot to Handle." Mae West is still wig-waggin Mickey, erstwhile Top Banana in her muscleman line-up before Jayne latched onto him (or did Mickey latch onto Jayne) — anyway, Mae wants the Mick to sign that release showing he's no longer under contract to her.

It's the same piece of paper she shoved at him when the "bust-up" came, saying, "Here, sign!" Mickey mumbled, "You know I can't write." And Mae said, "So do like you do when you cash those $250-a-week paychecks I've been making out in your name—make an X!"

SAMMY DAVIS Jr. was tardy for his rehearsals with Rock Hudson, Esther Williams, etc., for Revlon's Big Party special because he refused to work during Rosh Hashana.

Sugary title suggested by Sammy for a sugary cinema queen's life story, now being written: 'Treacle, Treacle, Little Star."

EARL WILSON:

Hand Kissing Coming in Vogue

HOLLYWOOD — I think American men should learn to kiss ze hand.

You muggs out there aren't going to like it at first. Some of my old clodhopper, hayshaker buddies from the farm country of the Middle West will doubtless claim that I've flipped for the European jazz and that I ought to be sent back where I came from (Ohio).

But I'm advocating it as a defense against the continental dandies whose luck with Kim Novak, Rhonda Fleming, Suzy Parker and other glamour girls is getting rather scary.

If we can't lick 'em—and we can't,that's clear—then let's join 'em. It's not really too painful, kissing a girl's hand, honest.

Speaking as one who has mastered it, I will pass along a few tips. Handkissing, I've noticed, is done most smoothly after the hand-kisser has had a drink or two. It relaxes him and also makes the lady's hand taste better.

Certain rules must be followed. First, you should not kiss the lady's hand and shake her hand, too. This is called "gauche" or "overdoing it," in the International Set.

Nor is it proper to wince, or close your eyes and nose, as though suspecting that milady's hand isn't quite clean, when embarking on the hand-smooching. A little dirt never hurt anybody.

"Where to kiss?" Ahhh, you've come to the right party for that information!

Somewhere between milady's second and third knuckle is ideal, but if she should be Zsa Zsa Gabor and be wearing diamond rings on her kuckles, try to make sure you don't go north of her wrist.

Try to keep in mind that her elbow and shoulder are not strictly speaking, part of her hand. If you insist on kissing those areas, you definitely will not get credit for this course.

Ernest Hemingway, who gave Toots Shor and me a lesson in this art once, emphasized to Toots that baring the teeth, and taking a bite out of the lady's arm, while growling, "Ruffffff, rufff, ruffffff," was such a violation of good taste that you might be barred rom Bricktop's in Rome next time you go there if the word gets leaked about.

Kiss only the top of the lady's hand. Kissing the under hand is considered underhanded and I wouldn't want to be responsible for your fate.

Go ahead and try it wherever yoc may be; Chicago, Nashville, San Franncisco, Columbus.

Comedienne Sue Carson once said, "When a man kisses my hand, I always think, 'Maybe my mouth is dirty.'" She is trying to hold up progress, that girl.

EARL'S PEARLS:

Cadillac

The Fifty-fifth... and the Finest!

It was shortly after the turn of the century that the first Cadillac car—"the automobile built to the highest standards it is possible to enforce on the production of a motor car"—made its appearance.

Every year since—save for a period when Cadillac devoted its energies to the national defense—a new interpretation of this unique goal has been presented to the world's motorists.

The superlative motor car illustrated above is the fifty-fifth in this unprecedented succession of distinguished automotive creations.

And it is, far and away, the finest and the noblest Cadillac of them all!

Never before has Cadillac artistry created such elegance of form and line. It has a commanding presence that is uniquely Cadillac.

Never before has Cadillac engineering produced so abundantly. The car is smooth and quiet to a degree that challenges belief.

Never before has Cadillac craftsmanship provided such interior luxury. And the complement of conveniences has never been more satisfying.

No matter how many of the fifty-five Cadillacs you may have owned and enjoyed over the years—you still have a wonderful experience ahead of you in this latest "car of cars."

We suggest you see and drive it very soon. And we hope you will come expecting great things.

CC Chamber May Take Site Stand

Voters Urged To Approve College Bonds

land Hadden, president of this community's chamber of commerce, said yesterday he expects the chamber to take a stand at its Nov. 3 meeting in the controversy revolving around the Palm Desert campus site selected by the Coachella Valley Junior College Board.

The chamber's meeting on Sept. 29 was the scene of one of several public debates which have taken place between Dr. Roy C. McCall, junior college district president, and H. L. Gogerty, main objector to the board's recent purchase of the Amos Odell property for the college site.

GOGERTY'S CHIEF argument is that the college would be located too close to the Palm Desert Airpark which he owns and manages. He has claimed that planes taking off and landing at the airpark would become a menace to the college.

He also claims that as a result he eventually would be forced to move the airpark which is presently located within one mile of the site.

THE COLLEGE board has countered that pilots following the legal flight pattern out of the airpark would not normally fly over the college site.

Gogerty is petitioning for an injunction in Superior Court to restrain the board from erecting the college on the Odell site.

Meanwhile, the board has passed a resolution urging district voters to approve the bond issue proposal at Tuesday's election. The $3½ million issue is for financing construction of the college.

SAFETY SLOGANS are popular with students attending Palm Springs Unified School District Schools, and also with the Cub Scouts. Special awards are given for collection of these during the school year —with Cubs clipping them from The Desert Sun. To aid in promotion of safety The Desert Sun regularly publishes these cartoons sponsored by the school district and Palm Springs Safety Council.

New Hair Styles Forecast

Exciting and interesting new Fall and Winter Hair styling will be premiered at the Beauty and Trade show to be held at the Ambassador Hotel, October 18-19, sponsored by the Coiffure Guild of Los Angeles and Hollywood.

This year Carol Byron, Theme Girl, will award the trophies for the preliminary hair styling contest Sunday evening. Carol, an all American girl, hails from San Diego and loves sports, swimming, tennis, etc. And for her short four years in the professional world has collected a lot of worthwhile credits in both movies and television. She has recently appeared in "Ask Any Girl" for MGM. She has been in Wagon Train, Bachelor Father, Dr. I.Q. Show and many other TV shorts and dramatic shows.

Carol of course advises that to maintain her good health, looks and personality she has to follow a good grooming program which includes extra special attention to maintaining healthy hair as well as correct hair styling for the particular personality and her facial structure.

The Guild advises coiffure styles for the Fall-Winter season will be youthful with the hair up-swinging from the nape to soft curls that caress the crown. However, the variations of this year's styles are many, such as the new adventurous SHORT SWEEP UP-DO. Slim and sleek on the sides and back with the puffed effect on the crown with the whirled ends to form soft banks. The Coiffure Guild members say that all the new hair-dos can be obtained with 3" hair all over the head.

THEME GIRL for the 24th Annual Beauty and Trade Show, sponsored by the Coiffure Guild of Los Angeles and Hollywood, at the Ambassador Hotel, October 18-19, Carol Byron will award Guild trophies for the preliminary hair styling contest on Sunday night. Her hair-do is one of the latest coiffures with the popular "Pouf" Up-Do effect sweeping toward the crown. The young actress recently appeared in "Ask Any Girl" for MGM.

Then there's the cut Kitten Coif originated in Paris, if you feel real catty. The Americanized version shows the silhouette as triangular with side wings like kitten ears, the top is smooth as velvet ending in a tremendous whisker curl on each cheek.

The PULLED UP-DO has its up-do in the top knot which is pulled up and cascades over like a flower of petal curls. The sides and back are sleeked down into a cap shape movement hugging the head. It is an easy to manage style, cool and comfortable.

And you must look into the new hair colors this year. Just for your own information and amazement. You can match any of your costumes or you can have your favorite color for a new you or you can just have your original color rejuvenated. Color can either be permanent or the type you shampoo in or spray on and wash out with each shampoo.

ONION ROLLS, crisp-crusted and tasty, serve as a good accompaniment for any meal, for the poolside luncheon or the barbecue, or especially for the ever popular buffet. Just right with salad and perfect with meats, onion rolls add zest to autumn meals and prestige to the hostess.

Rolls Add Zest to Any Menu

Here is a tasty suggestion for yeast rolls . . . add a bit of green onion flakes and you have flavorful Onion Rolls. Serve them piping hot so family members or guests can get the full enjoyment of the fragrant aroma of freshly baked rolls.

Brush the tops of the balls of dought with a mixture of egg white and water and sprinkle them lightly with a few more onion flakes. The egg white and water mixture assures a crisp, light golden crust.

Hot rolls are essential in any well-planned dinner menu. If your fall schedule keeps you too busy to make your own dinner rolls, your near-by bakery can be of help. Your baker will have a wide assortment of fresh dinner rolls, breads, coffee cakes and breakfast rolls, and exciting items for dessert, from which to choose.

ONION ROLLS

2 packages yeast, compressed or dry.
1 cup water (lukewarm for compressed yeast, warm for dry).
1 cup milk.
1/3 cup sugar.
2 teaspoons salt.
¼ cup butter or margarine.
6 cups sifted enriched flour (about).
2 tablespoons green onion flakes.
2 eggs.
1 egg white.
1 tablespoon water.
Green onion flakes.

Soften yeast in water. Scald milk and add sugar, salt and butter or margarine. Cool to lukewarm. Add 2 cups flour. Beat well. Add softened yeast, onion flakes and eggs. Mix well. Add enough more flour to make soft dough. Turn out on lightly floured board or pastry cloth and knead until smooth and satiny. Place in lightly greased bowl, cover and let rise until doubled (about 1½ hours). Punch down. Divide dough in half and let rest 10 minutes. Roll out each half of dough ½-inch thick. Cut with floured 2-inch cutter. Form each round into a ball and place on well greased baking sheet. Mix egg white and water. Brush tops of rolls with egg white mixture and sprinkle lightly with additional onion flakes. Let rise until doubled (about 45 minutes.) Bake in moderately hot oven (400 degrees F.) about 15 minutes.

Makes about 4 dozen rolls.

Boiling Kills Vitamin C In Broccoli

LINCOLN, Neb. (UPI) — Food scientists have come up with new ways to cook broccoli to retain flavor, color, texture and a high percentage of vitamin C.

Experiments at the U.S. Department of Agriculture research service dealt with three basic methods of cooking broccoli. One pound of trimmed broccoli was used in each experiment.

In the first method, the broccoli was boiled in 1¼ cups of water for 10 to 12 minutes. In the second, it was steamed for 10 minutes. The third method used a pressure saucepan, cooking the broccoli in ½ cup of water for two minutes at 15 pounds pressure.

Analysis of these methods showed that the vitamin C which was lost had dissolved in the cooking water instead of being destroyed by heat. By using steaming or pressure methods, the scientists were able to retain 65 to 80 per cent of the vitamin C.

LAUREN CHAPIN, who plays the part Kathy in 'Father Knows Best" TV series, is a veteran of show ness. The series is seen on the CBS Television Network from to 8 p.m. (PST), Mondays.

KATHY FOLLOWED FAMILY IN CAREER

Lauren Chapin, who plays Kathy, the younger daughter of Robert Young and Jane Wyatt in the CBS Television Network's "Father Knows Best" series, decided to become an actress because she wanted to follow her two older brothers into show business.

Lauren was a small child when she chose an acting career, having become fascinated by the activities of brothers Billy, 14, and Michael, 22, both of whom have performed in movies and television.

AT THE AGE OF eight, Lauren's big opportunity came, when Eugene B. Rodney, producer of the series, began casting for a little girl to play the role of the Anderson's impish daughter in "Father Knows Best." Lauren was given and, after extensive tests, was chosen for the part.

Lauren was born in Los Angeles on May 23, of Irish descent. The Chapins are listed in the Los Angeles Blue Book, and Lauren's maternal great-grandfather was the original owner and publisher of Harper's Weekly and Graham magazines. He also was a personal friend of Edgar Allen Poe, and published many of the poet's early works.

SINCE LAUREN has been acting almost since she reached school age, her education has consisted largely of attendance at the Columbia Pictures studio school, where she is entering the eighth grade.

Lauren made her first television appearance when she was eight on "Ford Th r," and later appeared on "I ideo" and "Matinee Theater. he appeared in the motion pi "Tension At Table Rock," f KO.

Besides acting uren is especially interested singing and dancing, and spe considerable time studying bot lost of her spare time on the is taken up by her schooling ough she enjoys playing canas reading when her lessons are shed.

WHEN SHE HAS time, Lauren devotes herself swimming and horseback ri She is extremely fond of dog, 'Tinker" — just a dog, s ays, regarding breed — which iv- en her by brother Billy.

Most of her weekends a cupied with the activities o club, the "Girls Friendly Soci which puts on benefit mus shows for orphanages and nishes baby-sitters for church- ing parents on Sunday morning.

One of the players you'll see in Robert Taylor's forthcoming ABC series, "The Detectives," will be Darryl Hickman, who started as a child actor 17 years ago in "Song of Russia," a motion picture that starred Taylor. Darryl, incidentally, is the older brother of TV's Dwayne Hickman, star of this season's new CBS series, "The Many Loves of Dobie Gillis."

Ann Sothern, Hunter Star In 'Dulcy' on 11

Ann Sothern, Ian Hunter and Reginald Gardiner are starred in MGM's delightful story of a harum-scarum heiress, "Dulcy," to be seen on KTTV's First Show With Jim Hawthorne, 12 midnight, Tuesday, Oct. 13, Channel Eleven.

Miss Sothern, as "Dulcy," matches a golden heart to a scatterbrain and everything she does or touches seems to fall apart. In trying to help a young engineer sell his new invention, Miss Sothern seems to hinder more than help, and yet the young man falls madly in love with her.

Excellent supporting cast is headed by Roland Young, Hans Conreid, Billie Burke, Dan Dailey, Jonathan Hale, Guinn "Big Boy" Williams, Lynne Carver and Donald Huie.

Stars as 'Fibber'

Sweeney Plays In Fifth Series

By VERNON SCOTT
UPI Hollywood Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Durability is a rare trait in TV, so rare, in fact, few performers make good when attempting a second series.

Exceptions are Ann Sothern, Robert Cummings and Richard Boone.

Exceptional is Bob Sweeney, who has survived three shows — "My Favorite Husband," "Our Miss Brooks," "The Brothers" — and now is embarking on his fourth series, "Fibber McGee and Molly."

A BALD LITTLE man with a pixie face and a can't-do-anything-right appearance, Bob finally is top banana on his own show, a feat that m a y prove his undoing. In past years Sweeney was always the guy the stars relied on to pick up dull spots in the script. Now he's got to carry the load himself with no Sweeney to pick up the slack.

"I'm not thinking about a fifth show," Sweeney grinned during lunch at the Brown Derby. "And I can't understand actors who want to get out of a successful series. Most of them are never heard of again.

"I SAY KEEP the store open as long as possible. A series is the best possible deal for an actor. You never have to worry about where your next job is coming from."

Because Jim Jordan originated "Fibber" more than 20 years ago on radio, and followed it up with two movies, Bob is competing with a legend, a character already established in viewers' minds.

"I've never met Jordan," he said. "I can't compete with a mental image, so I've avoided meeting him. It's absolutely imperative that I play Fibber my own way—if for no other reason than to escape comparison.

"AT THE SAME time, I'm not trying to prove anything. I just want people to sit down after dinner and have a good laugh.

"Fibber is more fun than the other characters I've played. There's more dimension to him. Each sequence brings out a new facet of his personality, and he's not all good.

"This is my fourth series, all right, and I'm grateful that I've survived three others. But I hope that Fibber and Molly stick around for many years to come.

"I like the money."

TOP SHOW TONIGHT—On CBS-TV at 10:00 p.m. Navy Doctor Hennesey becomes the naive foil of an "Ivy League Bilko" who inveigles him into a cross-country plane ride which they are both forced to help deliver triplets, in the comedy drama series "Hennesey." Jackie Cooper stars in the title role, comedian Jimmie Komack is special guest star. This is a very funny show.

Eric Monti Wins Hesperia Open With 271 Total

HESPERIA, Calif. (UPI) — Eric Monti, a steady club pro, outlasted some more glamorous golfers Sunday to win the $20,000 Hesperia Open with a 72-hole total of 271 — 17 under par.

The 40-year-old Monti who usually tends to his knitting at the Hillcrest Club in Los Angeles had rounds of 70-68-64-69 to win top prize money of $2,000.

At the finish, he had a four stroke lead over a trio tied for second — Jack Fleck, the 1955 U.S. Open champ from Tarzana, Calif.; Bob Duden, veteran from Oswego, Ore., and Jay Hebert, the handsome bachelor from Sanford, Fla. They each won $1,233.34.

Paul Harney, the slender slugger from Worcester, Mass., finished fifth with 277 and won $900; Billy Casper, Apple Valley, Calif., the current U.S. Open champ, got $300 for his sixth place 278.

'Big Five' Title Race Under Way

Two Games Are Scheduled for Next Saturday

... United Press International

The race for the "Big Five" championship finally gets started on a grand scale next Saturday with two games slated within the budding group that arose from the ashes of the deceased Pacific Coast Conference.

Southern California and Washington, both unbeaten and untied, clash in one of the tilts at Seattle where the Huskies downed Stanford, 10-0 last weekend, to take the league lead.

CALIFORNIA, WELL bopped in three intersectional outings, ventures to Los Angeles for another Big Five tilt with UCLA.

Stanford, which rounds out the quintet, is at home to outcast Washington State in what rates as a non-conference game. However, the team which wins the plantom PCC title this year, Southern California and California excepted, still will rate the trip to the Rose Bowl.

Two more intersectional defeats were pinned on coast delegations last Saturday, dropping this region's batting average to .200 in cross country hops.

THE WORST trimming was handed out in Berkeley, where Notre Dame thundered to a 28-6 victory over California. It was the third straight loss for Coach Pete Elliott's Bears who already had taken lopsided thrashings from Iowa and Texas.

Oregon State, now winless in its first four games, sported a 7-3 edge over Michigan going into the fourth quarter. A plunge from the one by Jim Stinnette had accounted for the Heavers tally. Then Michigan rallied to score twice with an Oregon State fumble and an intercepted pass launching both Wolverine drives.

WHILE SOUTHERN California and UCLA were taking the day off, Washington intercepted four passes by Stanford quarterback Dick Norman to take a big slice out of the Indians' main scoring threat.

Washington State downed College of the Pacific, 20-12, and held the Tigers' Dick Bass to 83 yards gained in 23 tries. COP outgained the Cougars on the ground, 485 yards to 214, but a pair of disastrous fumbles were pounced on by WSU's Myke Lindsay and Dick Farrar to start a pair of touchdown marches. Keith Lincoln scored the third.

River Clipper Wins Feature Caliente Race

AGUA CALIENTE (UPI) — River-Clipper beat Sergeant Ed in a photo finish to capture the headliner Sunday at Caliente racetrack.

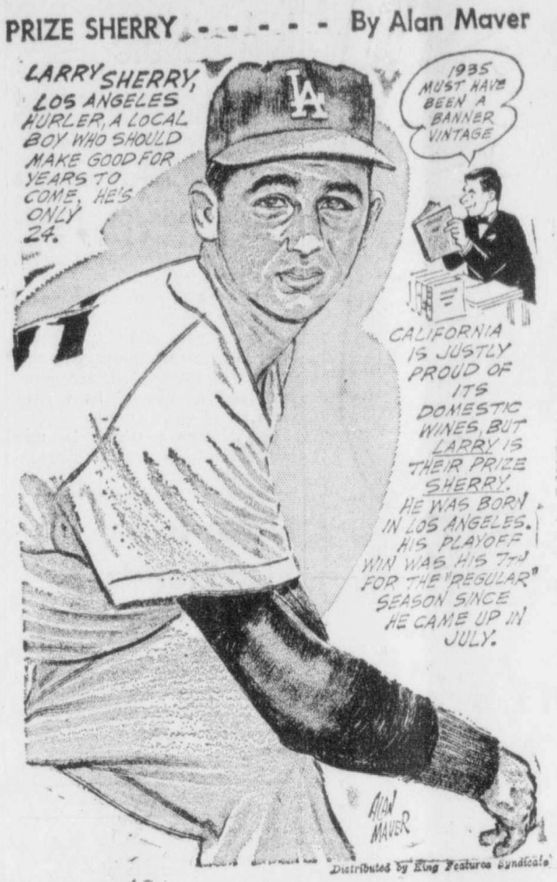
River Clipper raced the mile and 70-yard course in 1:42 3/5 and returned $6.40. War Marshal was third.

Mailman captured Saturday's six-furlong feature in 1:10 1/5. Casual Miss was a length behind and Plenty Baby finished third. The winner returned $4.60.

Largest 5-10 handicapping payoff went to an unidentified bettor who collected $47,854 Saturday on a $2 ticket after picking six straight winner.

HERE'S COLUMBIA University's new-fangled "muddle huddle" which has been perplexing the Lions' grid foes. In photo 1 the team lines up 10 yards from the ball. 2—They shift, with center, end and quarterback at the ball. 3—The Lions come roaring toward the ball and—4—shift into their regular split-T formation.

PRIZE SHERRY - - - - - - - By Alan Maver



SHERRY HOPES TO ESCAPE THE JONAH

NEW YORK (UPI) — The wonderful world of Larry Sherry includes no shadow of a post-World Series Jonah.

Big, black-haired Sherry is a very modest young man; but he said confidently today, "I expect a good season in 1960 because I've finally got control."

THE 24-YEAR-OLD right-hander who pitched the Los Angeles Dodgers to their series triumph over the Chicago White Sox is donfident that his slider, fastball and curve will protect him against the Jonah that threatened the previous three series mound heroes.

They were Bob Turley of the New York Yankees, 1958, who wound up 8-11 this year; Lou Berdette of the Milwaukee Braves in '57, who moaned the post-series blues in the early stages of the '58 campaign but finally escaped the Jonah and did well; and Don Larsen of the New York Yankees, in '56, who had an in-and-out season in '57 and pitched only 140 innings, although credited with a 10-4 mark.

SOME WITS HAVE even stretched the Jonah string back to Johnny Podres of the Brooklyn Dodgers, who pitched Brooklyn to its first series triumph in '55. Johnny spent the '56 campaign in the Navy.

"I don't believe I'll sluff off next season," said Sherry, who flew in from Los Angeles for Sunday night's Ed Sullivan TV show. "I certainly hope I don't because it's really wonderful to be a winner."

LARRY LOOKS AS starry-eyed as a country boy who had just inherited a million bucks. He couldn't hide the amazement in his voice as he told of the hundreds of congratulatory letters and telegrams, and of the mounting number of offers for personal appearances and advertising endorsements.

For a chap who was born club-footed and who wore braces until he was 12, it seemed that paradise had been reached when he was called up from the St. Paul club on July 4 by the Dodgers. But now he has zoomed to World Series stardom, and he finds his status delightfully incredible.

Nation's Top 10 To Have No Rest

By TIM MORIARTY
United Press International

There's no rest for the weary — or for those college football teams with title hopes and bowl ambitions.

Texas, Georgia Tech, Southern California and Purdue — all members of the top 10 — run into dangerous opponents next weekend.

FOURTH-RANKED Texas, after battling to a 19-12 comeback victory over once-mighty Oklahoma last Saturday, now must face Araknsas in a possible showdown for the Southwest Conference title and the host berth in the Cotton Bowl. The Razorbacks have won their first four games, including a 23-7 triumph over Baylor Saturday night.

Fifth-ranked Georgia Tech next runs into Auburn after turning back sixth-ranked Tennessee, 14-7. Auburn had its 24-game unbeaten streak snapped by the Vols at the opening of the season but looked as powerful as ever in whipping Kentucky, 33-0, in its weekend outing.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA took over the No. 3 spot in the UPI ratings after blanking Pittsburgh and Ohio State on successive weekends but now must tangle with surprising Washington. The Trojans rested during the weekend while Washington whipped Stanford, 10-0, for its fourth straight triumph.

Eighth-ranked Purdue also won't have much time to catch its breath. The Boilermakers, who rolled to a 21-0 victory over ninth-ranked Wisconsin, have a Saturday date with Ohio State, which should be in a fighting mood after dropping a 9-0 verdict to Illinois.

TENNESSEE AND Wisconsin were the only members of the top 10 who failed to survive the weekend action as the form held up remarkably well for the first time this season.

Top - ranked Louisiana State rolled to a 27-3 victory over Miami, Fla., second-ranked Northwestern turned back Minnesota, 6-0, seventh - ranked Mississippi remained unbeaten, untied and unscored upon by blanking Vanderbilt, 33-0, and 10th-ranked Iowa clobbered Michigan State, 37-8.

McKeta Named Back of Week

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Don McKeta, Washington's junior halfback, today was named the Big Five's Back of the Week.

McKeta raced 30 yards for the lone touchdown of the day as the Huskies were defeating Stanford, 10-0, on Saturday, led all ground gainers with 98 yards in 11 carries and was credited with more tackles than any other man on the field.

Commissioner Bell's Death Stuns NFL

Green Bay Is Only Undefeated Team in League

By EARL WRIGHT
United Press International

The Green Bay Packers emerged Monday as the only perfect-record team in a National Football League stunned by the death of Bert Bell, its iron-fisted commissioner.

Bell died Sunday in Pennsylvania University Hospital at Philadelphia while the 12 clubs he had guided to unprecedented prosperity clashed in the third weekend of what promises to be another banner campaign.

HE DIED SHORTLY after collapsing while watching the Philadelphia Eagles, a team he once owned and coached, edge the Pittsburgh Steelers at Franklin Field, 28-24.

The Packers, surprise team of the new season, boosted their record to 3-0 by edging the San Francisco Forty-Niners, 21-20. It was a squeaker typical of the well-balanced NFL competition produced by the draft procedure devised by Bell.

SAN FRANCISCO started the game as the league's only other undefeated club after the first two weeks of play and bowed when Lamar McHan threw a 21-yard scoring pass to Gary Knafelc midway in the last period.

It's the first time the Packers have won their first three games since 1944, their last championship season.

THE NEW YORK Giants took a big step toward retaining their Eastern Division title when they upset their top rival, the Cleveland Browns, 10-6. The Baltimore Colts, defending league champions rallied to defeat the Detroit Lions, 31-24, on John Unitas' 54-yard touchdown pass to Ray Berry in the final period.

The Los Angeles Rams, upset victims in their first two starts, scored their first victory at Chicago in seven years when they downed the Bears, 28-21. In Sunday's other game, the Washington Redskins defeated the Chicago Cardinals, who comitted four costly fumbles, 23-14.

BILLY WADE threw two scoring passes to Jim Phillips and one to Del Shofner for the Rams but they got the decisive touchdown against the Bears on Joe Marconi's one-yard plunge.

Ollie Matson slashed through the favored Bears for 199 rushing yards. Scoring lunges by Don Bosseler and Ed Sutton and Ralph Guglielmi's 58-yard pass to Bill Anderson produced Washington's touchdowns against the Cardinals.

'Trickery' Used By Stead to Win Regatta at Reno

RENO, Nev. (UPI) — Bill Stead, a daredevil with a brain, was under suspicion today by his fellow hydroplane drivers for a bit of trickery that won the Reno Regatta.

Stead piloted the Maverick to victory on the calm Lake Pyramid Sunday after he tricked four of the seven boats in the $10,000 Mapes Cup race into making false starts.

"I admit I tricked 'em," said Stead. "I pretended to make a fast start before the starting gun, then slacked off. They all thought they were outgunning me. That's why they crossed the starters line ahead of the gun."

Stead picked up the $3,000 first prize money for Phoenix and Las Vegas multi-millionaire Bill Waggoner who probably spent $100,000 this year just to have a winner.

Some of the drivers protested the chicanery but to no avail.

INDIO'S RAJAHS LOSE 19-0 IN SECOND OUTING

Special to The Desert Sun

SAN BERNARDINO — Indio's fledgling Rajahs failed to get off the ground in their second gridiron outing Saturday night as Rialto's Eisenhower High blanked the desert men, 19-0.

A blocked punt, a disastrous fumble and a fleet-footed Eagle halfback, Walt Meer, combined to crumble the Indio squad's second try at varsity league play.

But the Rajahs never stopped fighting in the Orange Show stadium tussle.

Unable to gain on the ground, Indio took to the air. But a stiff Rialto line halted a determined penetration of its own 20-yard line and took the ball on downs.

Scoring all the Eagle touchdowns, Meer scored on a blocked Rajah punt, repeated on a Rajah fumble and staged a 34-yard dash to the Indio goal line for the three Rialto tallies.

Heavyweights To Top Week's Boxing Card

NEW YORK (UPI) — Heavyweight Cleveland Williams is favored at 2-1 to beat young Curley Lee, Wednesday night, in their TV battle of knockout specialists at Houston, Tex.

Their ABC 10-rounder will be the only nationally televised bout of the week. Comedian Victor Borge interrupts the Friday TV fight schedule for one night.

NEITHER WILLIAMS of Houston nor Lee of Phoenix, Ariz., is ranked among the top 10 contenders, but each is a terrific puncher. Lee, 22, registered 12 knockouts while winning 13 of his 16 professional starts. He has a string of five straight kayoes.

Williams, 26, scored 37 kayoes while winning 43 of his 46 bouts. He will out-weigh young Curley about 210 pounds to 185.

Lee is a replacement for Sonny Liston of Philadelphia, who withdrew because of a training injury.

OTHER FIGHTS scheduled this week are:

Bud Hearn Dies

WILSON, NC (UPI)—Bud (Big Steam) Hearn, who showed King George V of England how to throw a curve ball, died Sunday at the age of 68. A major league pitcher with the St. Louis Cardinals, New York Giants and Boston Braves, he met George V while on a barnstorming tour in 1913-14. When introduced to the king he said "glad to meet you, Mister King."

Mike and Marlin

McKeevers Are Wrecking Crew

By ALEX KAHN

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Perhaps the greatest twin wrecking crew in college football history is composed of Mike and Marlin McKeever, the 19-year-old twin linemen on the University of Southern California squad.

Although the season is only a few weeks old, both have been chosen "linemen of the week" by the Athletic Association of Western Universities, the new "Big Five" conference on the Coast.

MIKE, WHO PLAYS middle guard or "Mike" position as it is known in the trade, was chosen lineman of the week after the game with Pittsburgh here. And Martin, the end, received the same honor for the Ohio State game the following week. Mike was a nominee that time also.

The McKeevers, identical twins standing six feet, one inch tall and weighing 218 pounds, were the most sought-after linemen in the country following their graduation from Mt. Carmel High School in Los Angeles.

IN HIGH SCHOOL and as freshmen the McKeevers even played the same position, on opposite sides of the line, being tackles. But when they reached the varsity last year as sophomores, Coach Don Clark made Mike a guard and Marlin an end to better use their abilities.

"I would be happy to have a team made of 11 McKeevers," Clark said. "With their natural athletic ability they could play any position although it might take a little work getting kids that big converted into quarterbacks."

SO FIERCE IS their competitive desire that frequently they will be trying to outdo each other as they rush a passer or gang tackle a runner.

"We like to play aggressive, hard football," Mike declared. "That's the way the game should be played. We have more fun playing against teams that hit hard like Pitt and Ohio State."

Marlin nodded his agreement and commented: "Those were sure great games. We had some real stars to go against."

HOW WELL THEY did was shown by the fact that such stars as Ivan Toncic of Pitt and Bob Ferguson and Bob White of Ohio State had their worst days against the Trojans. White, in fact, for the first time in his college career, was thrown for a loss.

Although Southern California has not started a concerted drive for national honors for the McKeevers yet, the players and coaches point out that Marlin outplayed two all-America candidates in the games against Pitt and Ohio State. The Panthers' Mike Ditka was bottled up all evening by Marlin and his co-workers in the Trojan line. And Ohio State Captain and end Jim Houston was outshone by the Trojan junior end also.

PHIL HILL WINS GRAND PRIX RACE

RIVERSIDE, Calif. (UPI)—Phil Hill, Santa Monica, Calif., won the $25,000 U.S. Grand Prix Sports Car Race Sunday before more than 70,000 fans.

Hill averaged 89.05 miles an hour in his Ferrari during the 203.05-mile race to set a new record. Chuck Daigh averaged 88 miles an hour in the first annual event last year.

HILL COMPLETED the distance in 2 hours, 16 minutes and 45 seconds to finish more than a lap ahead of an international field over the nearly four-mile track. Lloyd Ruby, Houston, Tex., was second followed by Ken Miles, Hollywood. Ruby piloted a 4.5 Maserati and Miles a 2-liter Porsche RSK Spyder.

Three of the 33 starting autos were involved in a pile-up when the green flag went down, delaying the start for 40 minutes. Two of the drivers were injured.

MECHANICAL troubles eliminated 16 other cars, including those piloted by the pre-race favorite, England's Stirling Moss; Mexico's Rodriquez brothers and defending champion Daigh. Richie Ginther, Granada Hills, Calif., fought for first place for the first 35 laps before his Ferrari developed transmission trouble and he dropped out.

Hill then took over. The win was worth $7,250 to him.

THE ONLY WOMAN entrant in the race, Josie Von Neumann, Sherman Oaks, Calif., came in 11th.

Finishing fourth was Dick Morgensen, Phoenix, winner of Saturday's amateur prelude for the Southern California championship.

Injured in the starting pile-up were Dan Gurney, Riverside, with a concussion, and Jack Graham, San Jose, Calif., with a broken arm. Both were reported in good condition.

The accident occurred when Gurney's 4.9 Ferrari stalled at the start and Graham rammed him from the rear and was sideswiped by Indianapolis winner Roger Ward. Ward escaped injury but his car was disabled.

WESTERN AIR SETS TRAFFIC RECORD

Record one - month traffic throughout the Western Air Lines system in August resulted in total operating revenues of $6,499,000 and net earnings of $769,000, equal to $.75 a share compared with $.43 a share for August, 1958, it was reported today by J. Hudson Taylor, WAL vice president and treasurer.

At the same time, Taylor estimated total operating revenues of the airline for September at approximately $5,900,000, compared with $4,040,000 in the same month last year.

The August revenue figure showed a 17 per cent increase over July results of $5,541,000, and a 43 per cent rise over total operating revenues of $4,536,000 for August, 1958, he said.

Introduction of Western's new fleet of Lockheed Electra jets on Aug. 1 was credited with a substantial share of the record increase in traffic during the month.

Riverside Keeps Lead in County Air Pollution

City of Riverside continued to lead other monitoring points in the county in air contamination levels, the Riverside County Air Pollution Control District revealed in its report for September.

Based on a figure of 0.20 parts of oxident per million parts of air, Riverside had five days in September that were 0.20 parts per million or above (with a high of 0.35). Corona had one day, and San Gorgonia Pass area had four days.

The oxidant concentration levels measured are indicative of the type of air pollution which causes eye irritation, adds to reduced visibility and crop damage.

September marked the final month of operation for the control district.
